

Minutes October 23, 2025

Following dinner, Co-President Judy Morante called the informal meeting to order at 5:40 p.m. There were 16 members in attendance.

Judy thanked Carole Lower for accepting the position of Vice President. She also expressed appreciation to Lynne Beemer for assuming Carole's former role as Service Projects Chairperson. Members were encouraged to send Lynne ideas and suggestions for Beverly House projects. Discussion followed regarding Christmas gifts for the girls, and it was agreed that gifts would be selected based on the girls' wish lists.

Auction Update:

Jackie reported that attendance for the upcoming auction is currently down by 20 people compared to last year; however, the minimum attendance requirement for the venue has been met. She will send detailed information about the auction to members in the near future.

December 18 Christmas Gathering:

Members were reminded of the Christmas gathering to be held at Margie Sievert's home from 5:30–7:30 p.m. Additional details and a sign-up sheet will be distributed via email.

The evening's speaker was Anne Wade of Alpha Lambda, currently serving as State First Vice President. Anne, a nationally board-certified educator and Fulbright teacher, presented an enthusiastic and informative program about teaching and learning in India through the Fulbright Global Scholars Program.

Respectfully submitted,
Margie Sievert
Co-Recording Secretary
